7. Viewing, Accepting, or Rejecting a Settlement Offer

Click ? here ? to watch a short demonstration video

A function of the Online Appeals functionality is to allow the Taxpayer to settle their protest online by either accepting or rejecting the Appraisal District offer.

1. On the Protest Summary Screen, click View under the Settlement Offer column
2. The Settlement Offer is listed under the Protest Details screen

3. Select Accept or Reject. A confirmation screen is displayed.
4. Enter the image information, then select Accept or Reject.

This is the Settlement offer made by the BA Appraisal District. By accepting this offer you withdraw your protest and waive your right to any further proceedings in this matter. The appraised value will be changed to the stated amount for the current tax year and no further action will be needed.

If this offer is rejected your protest will be heard during a formal hearing conducted by the Appraisal Review Board. Formal hearings will be held from the 2nd of May 2017 through July 15th 2017. You must attend this hearing in accordance with section 41.45 of the Texas Property Tax Code in order to receive an Order Determining Protest.

You must first complete the following form to finalize your decision to accept the settlement Offer(s) or original appraised value(s).
Please enter the text displayed in the image box below:
